

THE YEW MYSTERIES

Part 4 Chambers Of The Eternal with Michael Dunning Wales

26th & 27th May 2018

Abbeycwmhir Village Hall
Abbeycwmhir, Powys, LD1 6PH
&
Cefnlllys Yew Circle

Photo: Emma Farrell

Photo: Desiree Lowit

Chambers of the Eternal

At this fourth stage of the Yew Mysteries the student begins to perceive and learn about the activity of specific 'chambers' residing within the body - the Chambers of the Eternal - including the heart and the third ventricle, (which is located in the head.) These chambers function as doorways into a level of consciousness where 'sensing' becomes potentially free from the encultured activity of the external physical senses. The student is then supported to develop the capacity for an Original Sensing that, coupled to the subtle use of the hands, represents the beginning stages in the principles of a Yew Mysteries healing practice. At this stage in the Yew Mysteries the student perceives the ancient yew trees as living custodians to the higher healing forces of Annwn. We learn to sense, touch, heal and be healed through the power of the Original Light of Annwn. The meaning of the yew as Eya - 'to be touched by eternity' begins to reveal itself!

Cefnlllys Yew Circle

Located just outside Llandrindod Wells, this Yew circle sits around a church dedicated to St Michael and within a landscape rich in history and symbology. Just to the East of the circle is an iron age hill fort, where the Yew Tribe, the Silurians defended their sacred land from invaders.

There is no road to the church, we will walk across the common to reach it and ascend via an ancient avenue of Hawthorn trees that will lead us up to the 2 cathedral-like Yews at the entrance to the circle.

The whole site is almost surrounded by the river Ithon, which also feeds into the sacred waters of Llandrindod Wells. This site was a power place for our ancestors.

We will have the opportunity to work with a tincture of only the Yew arils and Hawthorn berries of this site, to facilitate bringing the medicine of this special site within.

Completion of Part 4 of the Yew Mysteries will lead you to the final stage of Michael's teachings - The Dragon Body

27th & 28th October 2018
Abbeycwmhir, Wales

The Dragon Body is the original 'body' of a human being. It is not physical in the way that we read the physical world around us. Our senses deepen and become less and less bound to the physical body and it's patterned responses as we get reconnected over a period of time to an experience of the original body in Spirit - The Dragon Body. At this level the student begins to have a different experience of the function of the Heart as a spiritual organ. This stage represents what I refer to as the Holy Path of the Dragon - a path that takes us into the livingness of what we call Death. This knowledge was preserved within the Yew Mysteries and involves a body of direct teachings from the Shining Ones. Within the Yew Mysteries this is known as the Shining Land of Death.

Part 5 will include an Initiation for all students, guided by the Yew itself. You will be part of the first group of people Initiated into the Yew Mysteries in these lands for hundreds of years. This is a great honour and we will end our training with a celebratory meal together.

Indoor Venue Location

The morning sessions of each of the training days will take place 15 minutes drive from the Cefnlllys Yews, in a secluded valley known for it's Great Oaks and ancient Yews, where the last true Prince of Wales is buried in the ruins of a twelfth century Cistercian Abbey and which is surrounded by fields, lakes and woodland.

Abbeycwmhir Village Hall
Abbeycwmhir
Powys
LD1 6PH

9.30am start

Kindly note that the course will be taking place in the village Hall, not Abbeycwmhir Hall, which is a large private house.

When you arrive in Abbeycwmhir you will see the church, keeping the church on your right, past Cross Cottage, taking the left as the road forks, the Village Hall is there on the right hand side. There is plenty of free parking.

We will be providing a vegetarian lunch each day, as well as coffee and teas.

Where To Stay

We strongly recommend booking your accommodation well in advance as May is a summer month and the area can be busy.

There are places to stay in Abbeycwmhir, Llandrindod Wells and the surrounding area at very affordable prices.

We have listed some places to stay at www.theshamaniclands.com/accommodation

In Abbeycwmhir - Laurelbank B&B, Happy Union Stables (Sleeps 5) and Cwm Bedw Farmhouse
Llandrindod Wells has lots of hotels and B&Bs - if staying in Llandrindod you will need a car each day to get to Abbeycwmhir, which is a 15 minute drive.

Course Fees

Course fees include Michael's teaching fees, course materials, lunch each day and refreshments
£218

This course is open to anyone who has completed Parts 1 to 3 of the Yew Mysteries with Michael

Archetype Training Ltd, Sort Code: 40-08-04 A/C - 81523805
IBAN: GB91MIDL40080481523805, BIC: MIDLGB22

Please reference the transfer with the name of the event and then send us an e-mail so we can contact you with your confirmation:
emma.farrell@archetypeevents.com